

Springtime Singing

Good-bye!! Hello!!

(tune: "Goodnight, Ladies")

Good-bye, Winter! Good-bye, Winter!
Good-bye, Winter! We're glad you've gone away!

Hello, Springtime! Hello, Springtime!
Hello, Springtime! We hope you're here to stay!

It Is Springtime

(tune: "London Bridge")

See the grass is turning green . . .
See the raindrops falling down . . .
See the flowers start to grow . . .
See the birdies build their nest . . .
See the leaves grow on the tree . . .

It is springtime!!

Si – So the Serry – O Springtime!!

(tune: "The Farmer In the Dell")

Springtime now has come.
Springtime now has come.
Hi – Ho the Derry – O
Springtime now has come.

I think I see a nest.

Ni – No the Nerry – O.

I think I see a nest.

(continue naming more spring objects)

See In the Springtime

(tune: "He's a Jolly Good Fellow")

What do I see in the springtime?
What do I see in the springtime?
What do I see in the springtime?
A word that rhymes with _____ .
(nest / rain / flower / etc.)

Seeds / Planting / Garden

I'm a Tiny Seed

(tune: "I'm a Little Teapot")

I'm a tiny seed, deep in the ground
I lie asleep, I don't make a sound
I need rain to fall,
The sun to come out,
Then I will begin to sprout.

See What Grows in My Garden

(tune: "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow")

What grow in my garden?
What grow in my garden?
What grow in my garden?
A word that rhymes with _____ .

showers / flowers
horn / corn seeds / weeds wash / squash
bees / peas nose / rose

I Love to Plant My Seeds

(tune: "Row, Row, Row Your Boat")

I love to plant my seeds
Deep down in the ground.
I plant arrots
And carrots grow around.

emon / lemon
elery / celery
pinach / spinach eppers / peppers
urnips / turnips
otato / potato
umpkin / pumpkin